Turn In Your Drums Stop Drum Violence

by Leah LaChapelle

SIGN THE PLEDGE TO JOIN
THE MOVEMENT TO STOP DRUM VIOLENCE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD.

Every second in America,
an adult, child or teen is affected by an annoying
drumbeat.

DRUM OWNERSHIP IS THE PROBLEM.

SENSELESS DRUMMING is producing a culture of drum violence and is destroying young lives nationwide. In 2013, Congress has the opportunity to close loopholes and enact universal criminal and mental health background checks on all new drum purchases.

Many Americans support this action, however,

there is ONE OBSTACLE
to a World Without Drums, and a safer auditory world.
It is the deafening existence
of THE 2ND PRETENDMENT:

“A well regulated percussion, being necessary to the security of a quiet state,
The right of the people
to keep
and use their arms
to beat drums,
shall not be infringed.”

the 2nd Pretendment by expunging it from our Constitution.

Here is what YOU can do:

*Support bills that put ALL drums - and rhythm in general - in the care of the government, where it belongs.

*Tweet your senators to vote YES on *better background checks for drums and to *implement TOY DRUM BUYBACK PROGRAMS through our public schools, *to inspire kids to urge their parents to turn in their:

bongos, snares, djembas, kettles, acoustics,
electrics, basses, toms, tambourines, and cymbals.

*Encourage elected representatives to support legislation that requires a symphonic license to perform The 1812 Overture by Tchaikovsky, and to ban The Little Drummer Boy carol from Christmas altogether.

SO TURN IN YOUR:

HAND DRUMS

AND

HIGH POWERED DRUMS

BECAUSE...

...Drum control

is the only way to protect our children from the tragedy of marching to the beat of a different drum.
